B.A.H.S. SILVER JUBILEE PRIZE ESSAY

In order to mark its Silver Jubilee, a prize of £100 is to be awarded by the Society to the best essay written by a younger scholar on a subject in British agricultural history. The selection will be made by a special committee, and it is hoped that the prize-winning essay will be published in the REVIEW. Conditions for entry are as follows:

- (1) essays, based on original research, not previously published, and not awarded any other prize, may be submitted by anyone interested in British agricultural history who is aged under 35 years on 28 February 1977;
- (2) essays may deal with any aspect and period of British agricultural history (including the agricultural history of Ireland);
- (3) essays must be in typescript, double-spaced, and must not exceed 10,000 words in length, including footnotes;
- (4) the closing date for the receipt of essays is 28 February 1977. Entries, marked "Jubilee Prize Essay," and stating the author's date of birth, should be sent to the Editor, together with a stamped addressed envelope for the return of the typescript.
